"The House I Live In"

*The house I live in,
The government, the school,
The grocer and the butcher and the people that I know,
The children and the playground, the faces that I see,
All races, all religions,
That's America to me.
The place I work in, the worker at my side,
The little town or city where my people lived and died,
The bowdy and the handshake,
The air of feeling free,
The right to speak my mind out,
That's America to me.
The things I see about me, the big things and the small,
The little corner newsstand, and the house a mile tall,
The wedding and the church yard,
The laughter and the tears,
The thing that's been a-growing for 150 years.
The town I live in, the streets, the house, the room,
The pavement of the city or a garden all in bloom;
The church, the school, the clubhouse,
The million lights I see,
And especially the people,
That's America to me.*

Dedication

The community of Superior is often called "the melting pot of the world." To the editors of the 1948 Dragonette that statement is an exciting challenge. To us it offers proof that if tolerance, kindness, and cooperation exist in Superior, they can prevail among all peoples of the earth. It means to us that world-wide peace can be a reality. Any government, democratic or fascistic, is totally dependent, always, upon the will of those whom it governs. There need not be wars if the people, of every country, nationality, and creed, work, and believe and stand for those beliefs against the wiles of exploiters and oppressors who give only lip service to freedom and democracy.

"That's America to me." This song expresses the ideas and the way of life every American cherishes and would never be willing to relinquish. For that very reason our task is unfinished. We are not yet citizens of the world and that must be our goal.

Therefore, to you, people of Superior,—thinkers, planners, and builders of today, we hopefully and confidently dedicate our annual.

"The Government" Administration

IVAN R. WILLEY

Remember how scared you used to get in grade school when someone said . . . "You're wanted in the super's office"? Now it's really a pleasure because the super's office has a nice soft carpet, and of course the Superintendent himself is tall, blond, and handsome with a sense of humor mixed in. By the way, if you need a joke for any speech, Mr. Willey has it.

Mr. Willey was principal for five years before accepting the position of superintendent.

PHYLLIS FOX

Mrs. Fox is one Iowan who seriously prefers Superior to Iowa. Although she is Mr. Willey's secretary, she does almost any other work there is to do, in addition to selling pencils and paper to dozens of students.

Her natural personality has won her the friendship of the students, who seem to spend most of their spare time in her office.

Mrs. Fox has been secretary for three years.

CHESTER H. ROBERTS

"O Death! where is thy sting?" is one of the many exclamations heard when passing Mr. Bobbie's office—"the board of education" at work.

Mr. Roberts taught science and math two years in '40-'41, '41-'42. He served in the Navy three years, and after his discharge returned to accept the position of principal. In addition to being principal, he teaches math, which is a favorite class. His favorite pastime is writing excuses.

Chester H. Roberts

BOARD OF EDUCATION

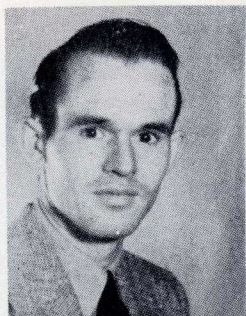

When we speak of "The Board of Education" we're not referring to the big stick in Mr. Roberts' office autographed by all who have felt its sting. No, the Board of Education is the highest authority of the administration, and their decisions are accepted as final, as far as the Superior Public Schools are concerned. It is composed of six members who are representatives of Point of Rocks, White City, "D" Camp, and "B" Hill.

Student Council

"When are we going to have a social hour?"

"Tomorrow, I hope." "The student council has a meeting today, we should know by four o'clock."

In such a manner do the students of Superior High School turn to their student council. Composed of six class presidents, this group with its leader, chosen by popular vote, represents the student body of 216 members.

Speaking for the students, the council plans dances, parties, and makes minor rules concerning school discipline and is always available to consider any problems which arise.

Principal Chester H. Roberts is the faculty advisor and Larry Woolrich heads the group as the student body president. Each class in turn has its own officers and separate meetings.

"The place I work in

The worker at my side"

Seniors

JUNE ANDERSON

Blondness, beauty, and brains do not often go together, so they say, but the seniors boast one girl who has all three. June is an A-1 librarian, has sung in chorus, attended the prom queen, and is active in pep club. Believe it or not, "Swede" has taken her school life seriously, even though she keeps others, mainly "Flee", either amused or "annoyed" with her continual antics.

IRENE BALOG

If you see a girl walking down the hall with an impish look on her face, that's Irene. And when she gets that look, watch out, because she's up to something. Probably one of her new ideas, such as her new look, days of Daniel Boone with her coon's tail. Irene had the big job of filling the position as editor of the Dragonette.

RUDY CRISTANELLI

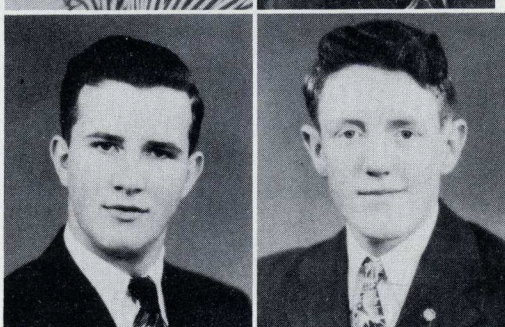

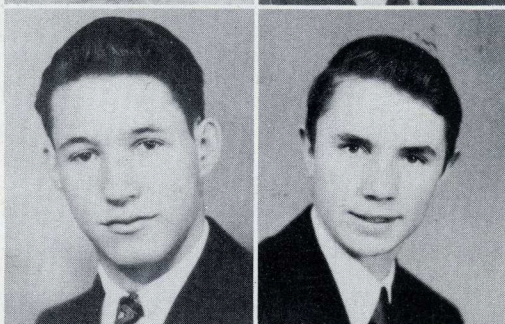

"Six-subject-student" is what Rudy is known as this year. This leads people to believe he's been lazy, but he just saved his work so he'd have something to do when he became a senior. Rock Springs is Rudy's favorite hang-out, where he pursues his hobby—girls.

SHIRLEY HYSELL

Here is one of the most serious-minded girls of the senior class. Unknown to her is a very fitting nickname, "Zip". And how did she get this name? Notice her speed in typing or her skill in handling that Oldsmobile. As class secretary she's always in pursuit of debtors. Watch out!

STEVE KRELOVICH

If you hear Colorado being mentioned, you know Steve is around. Here's another tall, dark and handsome wolf often seen roaming around. The "voice" heard at basketball games belongs to Steve and he also holds the position of associate editor of the yearbook and sports editor of the Kabib.

"The faces

MARY ANN BABICH

When you hear a "tee-hee-ha" resounding through the building, you'll know "Babbling Babich" has entered. Laughter is not her only hobby, she is also active in sports, music, and as cheerleader. She likes to drive, too, when she can talk her brother into letting her use the car, and there have been no bent fenders yet!

CARROL BROOKS

"Give me a long, long train with a red caboose to carry me home after basketball practice." This is part of the routine Brooks has to go through to participate in the various sports. Carrol is one of the tall, dark, and handsome Casanovas of the senior class and is kept busy with the positions of Kabibonokka editor, business manager of the yearbook, and president of the senior class.

BILL HORNSBY

Bill always seemed to be short, then as if overnight, he grew to 5' 10". He was manager of the football team and a regular member of the "B" squad. Bill must have a secret charm that inspires girls to write such "long" letters.

JOHN KOECH

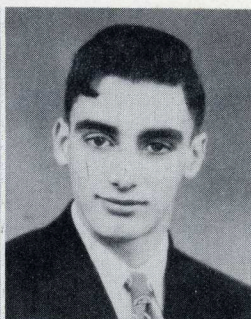

Possessing all the qualities that make him attractive to women—car, curly hair, tallness, soft voice, and fine line, (ahem), John has gained renown as man about town. Wolf to you, peasant! This makes him an ideal advertising manager of the yearbook.

BOB LAVERY

One of those "happy-go-lucky" characters who always has a joke at hand is our one and only "Carrot Top." Bob also makes a very good Mr. Anthony, if you have any problems. The blame for several pictures in the yearbook goes to "Red" and Larry.

VIRGINIA McJUNKIN

Big blue eyes and curly bangs have always been associated with Virgil. She is the second senior cheerleader and is the feature editor on the Kabib, so blame her for those gossip items. Virgil is a very "promising" girl and has the option on "Sam-Blam".

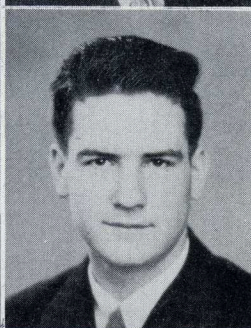

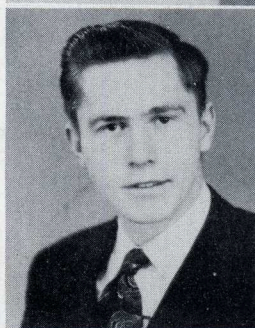

BOB MOSES

Basketball, football, volleyball and anything else in sports the school can offer is "Moses' desire". If at any time you wish to invest in a junk heap—pardon us—a car, Bob usually has a special around for sale.

JOHN PINTER

John always seems to have at least three girls on a string—probably because of those irresistible sweaters. Here's another member of sports fame in this "sports-crazy" school. His looks are very deceiving for he's not really as shy as he seems to be.

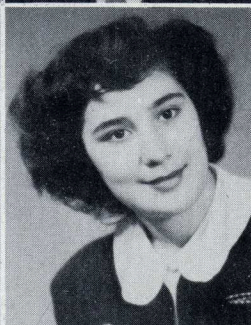

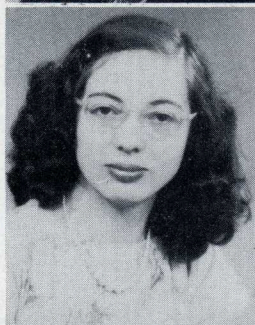

CARL SAMIETZ

Another of "those guys" who goes in for sports is Carl. He is one of the sharp-shooters in basketball this year and seems to have made a career out of sports. Sorry girls—he's hooked.

RITA SAMORA

At least every other book in the library has had Rita's name in it at one time or another. When not busy reading, that's bookkeeping she's so industriously working. But don't get the wrong idea. With beautiful black hair like that you couldn't expect her to study all the time!

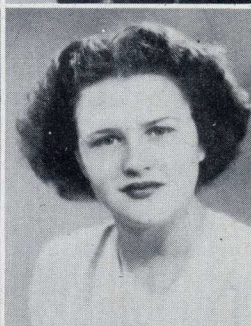

KATHERINE SANTISTEVAN

That noisy corner in home room is situated wherever Katherine and her gates happen to "plop". At least never a dull moment is guaranteed by these girls—and we may mention Hornsby. Envy of all girls are those dark eyes and shiny black hair, that Katherine has a monopoly on.

PEARL STOCKICH

Pearl had the honor of being our own Prom Queen in her Junior year. This year she is busy as cheerleader and in music. Picture shows take up a lot of her spare time when she can usually be seen with the other gates.

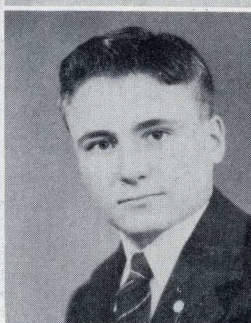

LORETTA TARTER

Loretta is the girl you usually see jumping around, yelling, and really enjoying herself—at basketball games that is. "Turta" is ambitious and witty, which will help her in nurses' training which she plans to enter.

FRANCES WELTY

"Ballerina" is probably Frances' favorite song for she really goes in for dancing. She is also one of those busy librarians and participates in music as you may have guessed.

LARRY WOOLRICH

The main student ruler of S. H. S. is President Lawrence Woolrich. After school his Majesty is busy at the store helping "Mackinsquash". He is the aide of Bob in photography and—egads! here's another basketball player.

Fire burn and couldron bubbles."*

This could easily be the motto of the junior class as they attempt another of their money-making schemes.

Among the many accomplishments of the juniors of 1948 were the style show, barn dance, leap year dance, election of Edith Angeli as homecoming queen, turkey raffle, and various other brain-storm ideas.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Barbara Lee, Miss Edith Rowland, and Mr. Dean Jackson, the junior-senior prom was a Hawaiian success, with Margaret Arkle reigning as queen and Jo Levar, Delores McGee, Theresa Gil and Edith Angeli as attendants. The year's efforts were believed to be worthwhile on the night of April 23, when their queen appeared before the expectant crowd which was attending the annual affair.

Fifty purple sweaters and white skirts worn by fifty charming girls, whom you are privileged to see every day in the halls of S. H. S., march onto the floor. The basketball crowd sits expectantly. The traditional half-time boredom is soon dispelled by the color and movement of the pep club performing their intricate marching drills, acrobatics, humorous skits and cheering.

Under the direction of Misses Dale and Edith Rowland, the pep club met weekly all year to practice their routines. Founded back in 1933, this organization has grown steadily, both in membership and popularity. Clubs in the future will have to achieve perfection to surpass the 1947-48 performances.

Cheerleaders

Leading the Pep Club and school at all school sports activities, these five girls are always busy. Three senior girls, one junior, and one sophomore make up this group which is chosen by popular vote of the Pep Club. All five girls are new to the job this year and are doing fine.

Majorettes

Something new has been added! Three girls of Superior High School, after many hours of practice finally made their debut as majorettes during the Labor Day parade. Since that first performance they have participated in several Pep Club drills. Their twirling was an immediate success; no one minded a few "pauses" in the whirling rhythm of the batons.

Future Homemakers of America

Front row—Sally Bowen, Rose Mary Hornsby, Shirley Hiner, Joann Chaussart, Shirley Morrow, Leona Harris, Claudia Rock, Betty Harrison, Connie Woodhead, Peggy Woolrich, Lillian Omoda. The purpose of the F. H. A. is to promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfactions of home-making; to emphasize the importance of worthy home membership; to encourage democracy in home and community life; to work for good home and family life for all; to promote international good will; to provide wholesome individual and group recreation and to further interest in home economics.

The F. H. A. this year is composed only of the Junior High School chapter. Representatives were sent to the District Meeting in Green River for one day.

A Candlelight Initiation was held in the fall for newly elected officers of 1947-1948. They were as follows: Alice Rizzi, president; Annette Dixon, vice-president; Norma Lavery, secretary; Joann Chaussart, treasurer.

Spanish Club

One of the many active clubs this past year has been the Spanish Club, directed by Miss Dale Rowland. Members may be identified by flashy chatelaine pins of black and gold. Club officers are: Patty Griego, president; Phyllis McLeod, vice-president; Theresa Gil, secretary-treasurer; and Martyn Weil, reporter.

Library Club

Busy as bees? What group can that be? Why, the student librarians, of course. Seriously though, librarians have a lot of work to do, but it can be fun—especially if you happen to come from a busy study hall. Occasionally they take time out for a refresher, namely coke. All librarians volunteer and don't think that they are sorry that they signed up to check books, shelve books, catalog books, dust books—books, books, books. You haven't heard any complaining, have you?

"Huckleberry Finn"

"Curtain!" To all lovers of the theatre that word holds a spine-tingling magic. The night of November 14, was no different as the curtain rose on the all-school play.

Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer get into a lot of trouble, as usual, to present an entertaining comedy built around a mystery of lost uncles.

Miss Barbara Lee, the director, selected the play from a varied list, choosing it on the basis of suitability for presentation by students of different ages. After tryouts the finished cast and stage crew were selected and the play went on after four weeks of rehearsals.

Speech Club

Eleven brave members of the vast Superior High School turned out to develop their dramatic talent with the assistance of Miss Barbara Lee. During American Education Week, in November, they presented a play each morning over the public address system. For other special occasions they entertained the school with dramatic presentations and short speeches. So if you saw John Koech portraying Hamlet around the halls, you can be sure the Speech Class was in for a dramatic session.

Acapella Choir

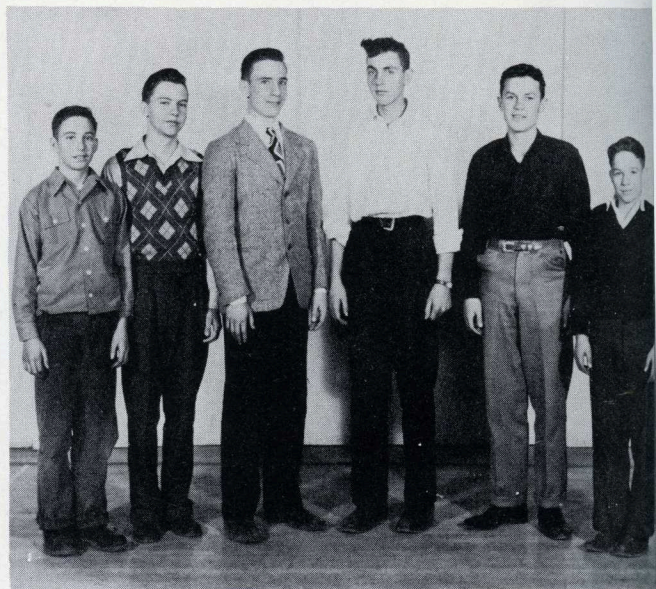

The Acapella Choir consists of over 50 members, both boys and girls. Up until Christmas the choir was under the direction of Mr. Elwin Williamson. The choir sang during the Christmas program this year and many other school activities. Since the resignation of Mr. Williamson music has been missed by everyone.

Boys' Glee Club

Second row—Pearl Stockich, Gary Osborn, Robert Clark, Flora Tosolin, Ralph Hiner, Carrol Brooks, Frank Subic, Martyn Weil. Third row—Margaret Arkle, Katherine Santistevan, Shirley Hysell, Lorraine Santistevan, Sylvia Marchetti, Frances Welty, Mary Lou Tremelling, Doris Brooks, Joyce Maki, Patty Griego, Margaret Hanking, Helen Fedele, Lucille Zamboni. Our own boys' glee club is made up of five ambitious Carusos. It seems like the others are always too busy studying (???) to take time off for melodious harmony. This barber shop quartette plus Colin Normington, showed up for practice 7th period each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. All joking aside, their loyalty was greatly appreciated.

Girls' Glee Club

The girls glee club was made up of approximately 20 girls from grades 9 to 12.

This group was an understudy of the Acapella Choir and met on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

With Sol Williams as the director, our orchestra has risen to the top of the list in the students' eyes, by showing their musical ability at several of our school dances. Faithfully coming to practice every Tuesday night, they learned many new and popular pieces.

The school dances were always eagerly awaited and it must have been due to those Dragon Rhythm Makers.

Next year students say it should be an aggregation second only to that of Tommy Dorsey.

Band

There is nothing like a band to raise the spirits of the crowd at any public gathering to a high level. Superior High School has some talented players and is striving to organize its band for these special occasions.

"The right to speak"

NOVEMBER ISSUE

Rumors Are Flying

"Marshall is going to marry." "Oh, no," "He's just going to attend a wedding." These were some of the rumors that were heard recently around the whole building. At any rate the find school was just trying to find out what was really happening. Marshall had come to school "all dressed up in his Sunday suit." A rumor started and before long, poor Marshall was as good as married. Determined to get to the bottom of the story our inquiring reporter went straight to Marshall. "Oh," he stated, "I just got tired of wearing levis to school so I thought I'd be different and wear a suit." And people wonder why reporters go crazy.

All-School Cast Starts Rehearsal

"Huckleberry Finn" has been chosen as the all school play presented November 15, under direction of Miss Lee.

The play takes place in a Louisiana village near the Mississippi River in the summer of 1850. It concerns three girls whose fathers die and leaves them a large sum of money. The girls are awaiting their uncles arrival from England when two impostors arrive announcing they are the uncles. Complications arise and after many exciting experiences it all ends happily.

Rehearsals began October 13. Those chosen for the parts after try-outs are:

Huckleberry Finn — Robert Tom Sawyer — Richard Collins
Aunt Sally — Margaret Matilda
Susan Wilks — Joanna

Freshman Initiation

A program on September 11, in the gymnasium, commenced Freshman Initiation Week. An abundance of water, along with many original schemes for punishment, were cast on the unsuspecting freshmen by the "freshies" sophomore. The freshmen had a now full day.

Since time began there have always been a few individuals who have had different ideas and the courage to talk about them and publish them for all to read.

The Kabibonokka is but a small part of this crusading effort.

In addition to a serious editorial policy, the paper includes lighter material such as memories, rumors, interviews, inquiring reporter, and interesting feature stories.

Fifteen members of the journalism class are responsible for putting out the paper every month.

Plans Made For Dragonette

The Journalism class has been receiving material from various companies pertaining to the publishing of the Dragonette. Although it has not been definitely decided which company contract, the Dragonette has begun the work of the annual.

Wallace has selected the class qualified for the staff.

Big event of the month! For a lot of entertainment get hold of those senior Haah books. There is some pretty interesting information.

Even if you don't appreciate the lab, it's no excuse to blow it up. Goes for a group of Physics students.

Luella Kettle has a knack for picking out cute boys. Donald Harvey is her number one.

Mr. Williamson says he has the ornariest kids in school in his study halls—no arguments!

There is one junior girl who says the senior boys aren't too conceited to go out with underclassmen. For information ask Betty Harvey.

What is the reason for Mary Ann offering to become Shirley's body guard? We'll have to look into this further.

Every time Bob L. and Mario C. see certain girls their hearts throb bloop-bloop.

Anthony Faneiski sure is lucky

DEAN JACKSON

If you hear the girls sighing it's probably because Mr. Jackson has come into view. This is his second year here. He was born in Clarendo, Iowa, but attended school and college in Lincoln, Nebraska.

Mr. Jackson has black hair, blue eyes and is six feet tall. His marital status is now single but he plans to marry Lucille Voltipka (a girl) during the Thanksgiving vacation. They plan to live in Superior.

Do you remember way back in January seeing fifteen journalists bustling around the halls and rooms, chewing pencils, pulling their hair, holding onto scraps of paper containing their latest brainstorm, with their eyes large and bloodshot showing loss of sleep from wondering anxiously if they could possibly meet the deadline? Well, did they make it? By working until the last minute they managed to succeed, although lines of strain and vacant stares have not yet been erased from their faces.

Swing Your Partner

Hay! Hay! and more hay was the theme of the Junior Barn Dance, held October 24th at 7:30 in the gym. The music was furnished by William Rind and Bob Williams. Among the various dances were waltzes, polkas and square dances.

Juniors Order Class Rings

"Frying Cast" was the style chosen by the Juniors for their class rings. They are gold with a white-gold setting. In the center of this is the "S." The "S" is on top of the ring and the "J" is on the side. The Junior class president, Mr. Greet Ann Arkle, headed the committee September 20. The rings are headed by...

"All Races, All Religions"

Swedes, Greeks, Negroes, Mexicans, Irishmen, Germans, Englishmen, Indians, Spanish, Serbians, Italians, Croatians, Russians—The theme of our book would not be completely expressed without representing a few of the many nationalities in our school.

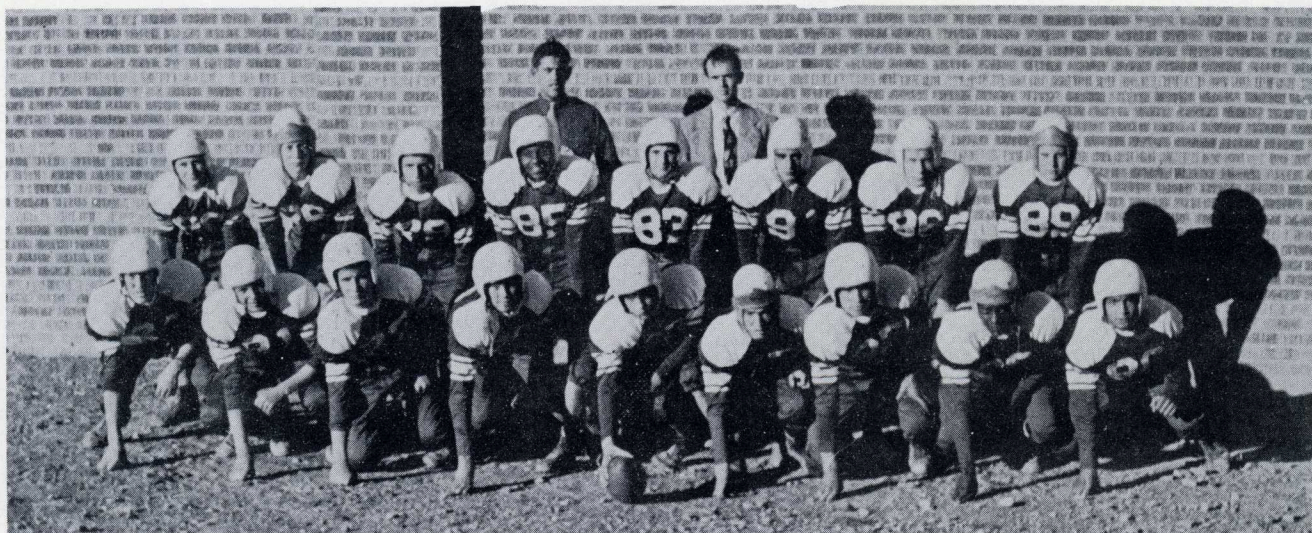

We are proud that racial prejudice does not exist in Superior High School. Everyone works and plays together in the true spirit of brotherhood.

As is revealed by the faces in this picture, no one thinks twice about a name or a complexion.

Football season began this year with the annual football camp trip to Newfork Lake for the purpose of preparing the boys for the gridiron season. Thirty boys reported, seventeen of whom were previous lettermen, six who had experience, and seven beginners.

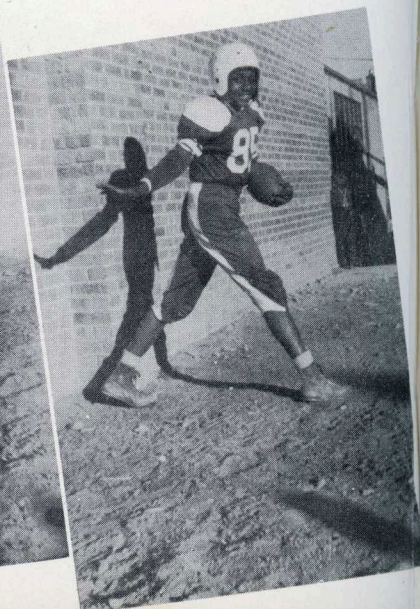

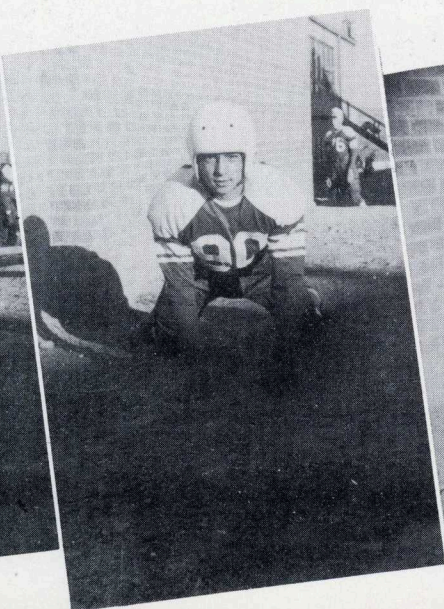

Head Coach Dean Jackson, last year's assistant coach, with the aid of Lewis Blight, kept the boys in training for the three months season. Although no games were won a great improvement was noticeable toward the end of the season.

Those who lettered this year were: John Kettle, Albert Foianini, Walter Lucas, and James Daniels. They were initiated into the "S" Club in November.

The first eleven were: Center, Bill Uhls; Left Guard, Carl Samietz; Right Guard, John Kettle; Left Tackle, Steve Krelovich; Right Tackle, John Koech; Left End, Bob Kladianos; Right End, Milford Robinson; Wing Back, Marshall Robinson; Quarter Back, Anthony Panalsek; Full Back, Bob Moses; Tail Back, Larry Woolrich.

Others who saw action were: Albert Foianini, John Pinter, Bob Lavery, Frank Subic, John Balch, Walter Lucas, Carrol Brooks, James Daniels, and Richard Simpson. Due to injuries occurring at the beginning of the season, Carrol Brooks, Martin Weil and John Pinter were unable to participate in the latter games. The scores of the season were:

Kemmerer	48-0	Rawlins	20-0
Green River	32-0	Green River	13-0
Evanston	28-2	Afton	18-12
Rock Springs	28-6

The 1947-48 basketball season began with a record turnout of sixty-five boys. Coach Dean Jackson, in charge of the first squad chose 15, eight of whom were veterans of last year.

The remaining boys were put on "B Squad" coached by Lewis Blight. Later in the season both squads were cut down to 10 boys.

After a fairly successful season the Dragons' chances to place in the district tourney seemed to be greater than they were earlier in the season.

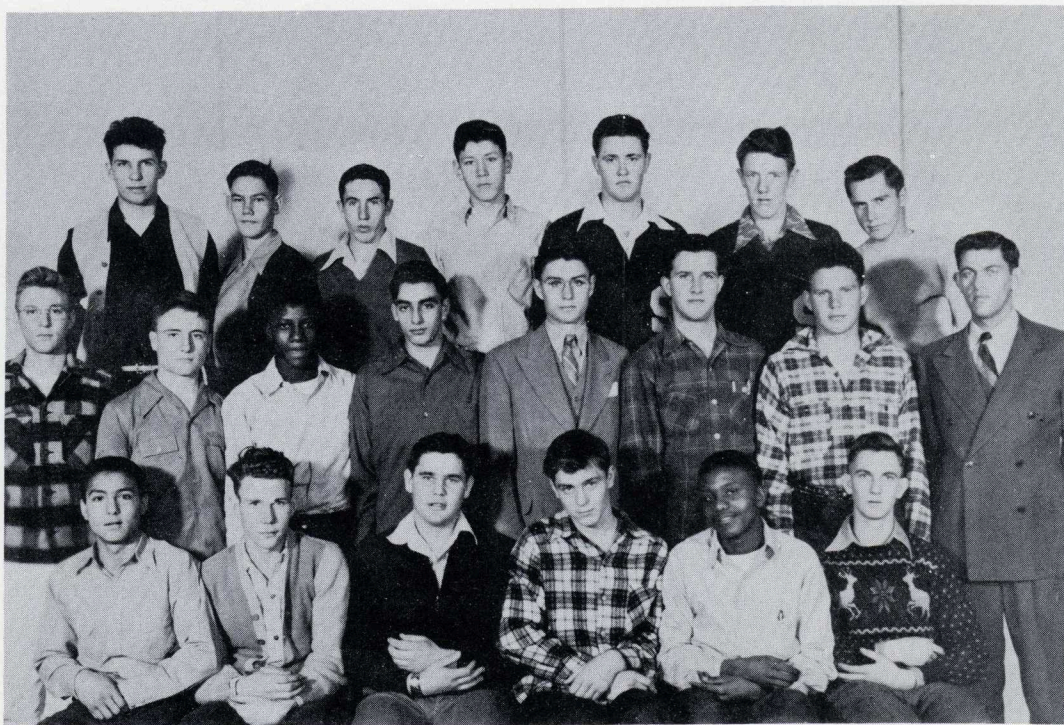

The scores of the games were as follows:

Superior..... 20	Lyman 25	Superior..... 34	Kemmerer 45
Superior..... 37	Green River 41	Superior..... 43	Rock Springs .. 49

The reorganization of one of the most popular clubs in Superior High School was made under the supervision of Coach Dean Jackson and assistant coach Lewis Blight. This club is the lettermen's group of S. H. S., better known as the "S" Club.

This worthwhile organization has entertained the student body, residents of Superior and surrounding vicinity, with boxing and wrestling matches, formal dances, and moving pictures. The school is deeply indebted to this group because they have set the pace for sportsmanship, school spirit and promoting good will among our neighboring schools.

The "S" Club is composed of 21 members. Presiding over the group are the following officers: Bob Moses, president; Carrol Brooks, vice-president; Larry Woolrich, secretary; and John Koech, treasurer.

Junior High Basketball

The future basketball players of S. H. S., under the able coaching of Lewis Blight, completed their junior high games by attending a tourney held at Rock Springs, March 27.

Lewis Blight had 22 boys reporting at the beginning of the season and has high hopes for the future stars. Although practices were limited to three during the week, the youthful players managed to obtain many of the fundamentals of basketball. Their season scores were as follows:

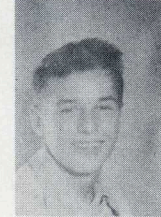

Superior	15	Green River	31
Superior	14	Rock Springs	33
Superior	9	Rock Springs	26
Superior	7	Rock Springs	26

The annual junior high tourney saw Superior's eighth grade take third place when they won over the Rock Springs Orange team, 25-23.

The seventh grade took fourth place after being defeated by the Rock Springs Blue team 23-14.

Members of the eighth grade squad are: Charles Gonzales, Jimmy Callas, George Chavez, Bill King, Bill Fox, Nick Moser, Junior Vesco, LeRoy Suniga, Bob Subic, Ralph Garcia, and Leon McGee.

Seventh grade players are: Donald Harvey, Freddie Arnoldi, Tony Simons, Melvin Stevens, Nathaniel Lee, Bob Dusenberry, Rudy Simons, Millard Earwood, LeRoy Tremelling, and Earl Marsh.
